

"A Perfect Woman Nobly Planned To Warn, to Comfort and Command"

Nature never intended woman to be delicate, ailing, or a sufferer from "nerves." Women in middle age complain of "hot flashes." Many women suffer needlessly from girlhood to womanhood, and from motherhood to middle life, with backache, or headache, dizziness, faintness, or bearing-down sensations. For a permanent relief from these distressing symptoms nothing is so good as

as a soothing and strengthening nerve-alloy and sedative nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, and other distressing symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the female organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

SWOLLEN FORTUNES AND THE ABSENT EMPLOYER

In the trend of events today there are traces of a revolution as radical in its change in some respects as that wrought in the bloody days of the Commune in France. The people then seemed to tire of prosperity, and the very luxuriance of the age aroused some of the people when they saw others enjoying what they did not enjoy. Then came the outburst of the Commune.

This revolt against royalty suggests the present revolt against wealth and the flagrant display of luxury following the introduction of the automobile. The wealthy are swept by throwing dust in the eyes of the pedestrians, and it takes something more than human nature can bear to see sons and heirs of men who created great wealth riding about in automobiles, while the sons of the men who helped create that wealth walk in humble stations.

This is the viewpoint of the man who walks, but once in the automobile, all seems different. Swollen fortunes placed in the hands of young men unprepared for contact with the life and activities that had created the same fortunes, cause them to act upon the impulse that usually comes the heir of a fortune—to reverse at once the very policies and broad spirit that created the wealth handed to them. Some seem to feel that the mere possession of money entitles them to considerations that others do not possess. The old foxhound employer whose genius created a business enterprise and kept him in personal touch with his men, was welcome to his prosperity and knew little of strikes—but the absentee employer and the absentee landlord are popular targets for agitators who aim at quick results—"Let's Talk It Over" in National Magazine for March.

RESULTS OF THE INSURANCE SUSPENSION

The people of Kentucky have so long regarded fire insurance as a matter of course that it is difficult for them to understand what the absence of it will mean to the State and its business. Fire insurance is closely interwoven with the business fabric, being the basis of commercial credit, and suspension of the insurance companies because of the enactment of the Glenn-Greene law will have serious and far-reaching effects. There was a similar suspension in Missouri last year because of the enactment of the enactment of obnoxious laws they maintaining 'until the objectionable features were nullified by the action of the State officials, on the insistence of the business interests. The principal effects of the suspension there are summarized as follows:

Restriction of commercial credits by wholesalers, jobbers and manufacturers.

Holding up of building loans, mortgages, and other investments dependent upon the protection of fire insurance for their security.

Inability to secure loans from the banks on bills of lading and warehouse receipts because they could not be accompanied by the usual fire insurance certificates.

Removal from the State and diversion of shipments of grain, cotton, whiskey, tobacco and warehouse goods requiring insurance protection.

Cessation of building activities, throwing thousands of workmen out of employment, with similar effects upon workmen in building material and allied lines.

Fire insurance agents deprived of their commissions and livelihood.

Heavy losses suffered by property owners whose buildings and goods were destroyed by fire without insurance protection.

State given a bad name throughout the country as hostile to business interests.

Because of this and other results of the insurance shortage, the business interests of the State finally forced action by the State authorities, which resulted in a compromise under which the insurance companies were enabled to resume business with safety.

EVERYBODY DID

One predicts a future for the school boy who wrote the following terse narrative about Elijah:

WORK ON NATIONAL PIKE

Will Be Started May 1 By State and Federal Officials.

Columbus, Ohio, March 16.—With State and Federal authorities co-operating, actual work of rehabilitating old National pike from Columbus to Wheeling, W. Va., will start May 1. The first thing to be done will be the letting of a contract for 24 miles of concrete roadway, the longest stretch ever let in Ohio at one time. On request of Federal authorities at Washington, the original plan of reconstructing the old road with brick was abandoned.

The change was occasioned because of the expense of brick paving. The Federal Government would not give assistance unless the work could be done for $16,000 a mile or less.

That portion of the old National pike which will be constructed this year runs from Zanesville, in Muskingum County, west to near Herbon, in Lincoln County, a distance of 24 miles.

The total cost of construction as planned will be about $440,000. Of this amount the Federal Government will pay $120,000, Muskingum County $100,000, and Lincoln County $140,000. The remainder, $80,000, will be paid by the State.

Final plans for constructing the road were completed in Washington recently by State Highway Commissioner Marker, the Director of the Federal office of Public Roads and the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General.
